Immediately following the fire of unknown origin which destroyed the Bay St. Louis depot building of the L. & N. R. R. Thursday night at 11:15, officials of that company, headed by John Bose, N. O. & M. Division superintendent, were on the scene early next morning, conferring and hastening the work of providing temporary quarters for use by patrons of the road.

Crawford Busy Man.

Owen Crawford, resident road master for the division, and other heads of local departments, were quite busy in the task of establishing temporary rehabilitation.

Destruction by fire of the attractive and spacious depot building of an architectural type of other days, yet of handsome and outstanding character, was sudden and of short

Fire Discovered in Express Office. At the aforestated time, Night Watchman Alcine Saucier, and Baggage Master Delmas Ladner, awaiting the arrival of a north-bound train, discovered the smell of smoke and were quick to investigate. Peering through window into the express office, on the north end of the building and adjoining the baggage department, they found the place enveloped in smoke and lost no time in giving alarm. The department was quick to respond, but by this time the fire had gained such, headway the pine building soon fell prey to the Improvised Station House. However, the extreme southern end of the building, where was housed the Western Union office was partially rescued. Here remained the charred frame and around it early the next morning Chief Jos. L. Gager, of the section department, had a force of men and directed the construction of a building possibly a little larger than the average house room, where the telegraph and ticket sales department of the railroad company was at once established.

Covington will be the Mecca for thousands of week-end visitors from New Orleans, with such outstanding attraction as Sunday race meets. Information from that city is to the effect weather permitting, the race meeting will open there Sunday next, March 18th, and if the weather is too bad it will be postponed until Sunday, March 24th. Horses are reaching Covington every day, in carloads and others by vans through country. Work is progressing rapidly and it is said that the grandstand will be completed before opening day. Manager Cole has had a big force of men at work for the past two or three weeks erecting the grandstand, remodeling the buildings into stables, resurfacing the track, building fences and making repairs.

Applications for stable room are coming in fast. Mr. Cole said he had received letters from horsemen from all over the country stating they expected to come here for the meet. Many will spend the summer here. Many more applications have been received for stable room than can at present be accommodated though Mr. Cole has arranged to take care of about 150 horses.

Hundreds of cars containing visirounding country visited the Fair Grounds. Horsemen have been droping in almost every day and all express themselves as being agreeably surprised at the condition of the track. On account of the sandy soil water does not remain on the ground more than a few hours, which means that nearly all the time the track should be lightning fast.

FOLLOW PITTSBURG

A prominent business man of Pittsburgh, Pa., complains that the merchants of that industrial city are buying too many things out of Pittsburgh that they should buy at home.

As we read his plea we realized that it would almost do for a sermon to the people of Bay St. Louis on trading at home. If a big city like Pittsburgh tries to stimulate its people to buy their goods in Pittsburgh, it would seem the proper thing for Bay St. Louis to do, in spite of the chronic knockers who are satisfied that the town will never amount to much.

A NATIONAL PARK IN THE SOUTH.

The gift of $5,000,000 by the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park fund insures the successful completion of that ambitious project, whereby the eastern section of the United States will obtain a great park, rivaling in magnitude the Yellowstone, Yosemite, Grand Canvon and Glacier National Parks.

The proposed area is 700 square miles in extent, including mountainous country in eastern Tennessee and western North Carolina. Scores of peaks tower more than 6,000 feet and hundreds top 5,000 feet. Nearly half of its area is covered by virgin forests, in which are found red deer, black bear, elk and abundant smaller game. More than 400 miles of trout streams are

The value of this great park to the eastern part of the United States is in its close proximity to threefourths of the population of this country. The generous action of the Rockefeller Memorial, in doubling all contributions up to the sum of $5,000,000, means an immediate gift of $4,913,000, as that much has already been secured for the park purpose. The $9.826,000 thus available is expected to sufficient to purchase the land in the proposed area.

Talking figures of the Bureau of Economics the Secretary of Agriculture says there was a net loss of 193, 000 in our farm population in 1927. Because this is less than one-half of the average drop during the past five years the optimistic secretary believes that the farming industry has struck a better balance with other businesses and offers a better opportunity to earn a

Next year he expects no loss at all as agriculture seems to have taken up the slack and appears ready to go forward in better shape. Now, we hope he is right, but If he is what has fooled all the people who believe that there is a farm problem, entitled to immediate relief. The farmers may be better off than they think but we doubt if they are as well off as the figures of the Brueau would seem to show.

BOOST BUSINESS HERE.

Local business men may be interested in the fact that two large mail order houses report gains over 1927. One of them has shown a gain for eleven consecutive months and the other for nine consecutive months.

Some of the business that went to these mail order son's statement that police ineffihouses was sent to them by customers of firms in Bay St. Louis. Some of the goods ordered was in our stores and on sale at prices that compare with mail order Our extra slice of pie for this week, any flavor, is prices, everything taken into consideration.

Bay St. Louis merchants cannot blame the buyer for all of this trade that was lost. In too many instances there are merchants who expect the Trade-at-Home idea Many a sweet young thing has no idea how her to be a substitute for advertising, snappy service and efficient methods. Fortunately, Bay St. Louis has sev eral capable merchants, who know how to buy and how to sell, and they are doing their part in building up this No matter how much a man may grumble about his city as a trade center by offering the latest goods at

REVIVING THE DEAD.

That the lives of individuals are being gradually extended through the excellent work being done in the field of preventive medicine leads many to wonder where the limit of the average life will end.

Prof. Feodor Andreieff, a noted Russian biologist, sees in the future the revival of the dead, except where disease has attacked fundamental organs, and the extension of human life to its utmost potential duration, probably far beyond the century mark.

Cases are cited of patients, who, on the operating table, were immediately revived, and stillborn children the heart. All of us have heard of remarkable cases of resuscitation after drowning, asphyxiation and elecbiologist says.

HERE IS HONESTY.

Those of us who are boastful of our civilization will admit that there is more crime than there ought to be, but few of us know exactly how much crime we should

The Anatolian Turk is credited with what we concede to be the world's record as far as honesty is concerned in a city of 124,000, where only one case of robbery was reported last year. Merchants, going to lunch, set a chain in their doorway to indicate they are absent. At night they hang old rugs in front of their booths to keep out rain.

Now, as everyone in Bay St. Louis knows the editor the girl babies because they do not of the Sea Goast Echo has never visited Turkey, and he does not, of his own knowledge, make the above statements, which are taken from an Associated Press dispatch but that it depicts a remarkable state of affairs is not to be denied.

FLOOD RELIES—WHEN?

About a year ago the Mississippi began its depreda tions. Today the Red Cross is still feeding 71,000 refugees and the end is afar.

What is the use of "flood relief" if Congress is go ing to debate the matter until after the victims are son was somewhere in France either dead? Isn't it about time for something to be done for in an unmarked grave or lying unithe people in the state subject to recurring disaster? dentified near some wire fence or in They have been the victims of conditions beyond their borders and which they cannot centrol. Is the big idea to let them have another flood and then give relief for both at one time?"

Farmers Wife Makes Cake All Meal Ban Diel.

Crime as a Business.

Wireless Flight, Perhaps. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE. (Copyright, 1927)

This will interest farmers' wives Mrs. James Hamilton, of Pawhuska, Okla., not satisfied with thirty cents a dozen for fresh eggs, developed this idea. She knew how to make good angel cake. Eleven eggs make a cake that sells for a dollar. Cost of other ingredients amount to little. Mrs. Hamilton put her eggs in angel cake and got nearly one dollar a dozen.

Many farm wives, however, far from any angel cake market, can sympathize with an Irish farmer asked by an' efficiency man, "Do you know what the ducks swimming in that mudhole would be worth in London?" you any idea what the puddle of water would be worth in hell if I had it here?" The market is the prob-

A new flying machine idea, based on "free energy" or "magnetic power interests Lindbergh and others. It burns no fuel, is expected to fly for 2.000 hours, and Lester J. Hendershot, the inventor, is full of hope. It is only hope as yet, although the working model performs Eventually; no doubt, as Tesla and others believe, flying machines will pick up "wireless power" from the earth, borrowing from Niagara, the Colorado river and other sources as they fly around the world. That will solve power problems, and 1,000 miles an hour speed will annihilate

A French flier surpasses the American "loop record" by turning eleven hundred and eleven aerial somersaults with a monoplane in four hours and fifty-six minutes. That is exactly as unimportant as the number of back somersaults turned by a circus actor. It is thinking and inventing that count, not "stunts."

Moscow statistics for 1927 show four divorces for every five marriages. Divorces may equal riages. Some young Russians, according to report, are divorced five and six times in one year. Russian authorities say this is a proof of good morals, proving that young people insist on retaining the marriage status, even if they change every month, and that they will not sink to promiscuity. This must stir emulation in our young "trial" and 'companionate" marriage enthusiasts.

afire, some of the speediest ever seen here, and with only six minutes seen here, and with only six minutes of the fray palyed the score stood as 18 to 4 in favor the visitors. Capt. Leo called time out and attempted to marshall his forces to a rally, but they could not seem to get off on the right foot to head off the lanky Lamantia and his running mate, Coridel, who kept the pace up till at the half the score stood 29-17.

The second period was a repetition of the first, only the Devils worked hard and kept fighting inch for inch. "Pizen" Toca was the most consistent of the Imps and every now and then he'd get a bull's eye, getting a total of fifteen points by his little lonely. Genard was guarded so closely that he had no chance. Generes relieved Kramer and accounted for eleven points, which Leo "Puddin" Heinen Rockachaw Revenge in Second Game Sunday afternoon found the two quintet of gladiators again on the arena. The Red Devils were out for blood-buckets of blood-and they got it good and plenty by taking their enemy into camp to the tune of 41 to 27 in a snappy and fast game that never let up in its speed from whistle to whistle.

The Imps got off on the right foot and into their stride from the very jump and were never headed. What

If they keep that stride up week after next in Chicago, it's going to take some phenominal playing on the part of some high school lads of the North to head them off from the championship.

Caridel started off by getting a basket after cautious playing by both sides for four minutes, and many thought that was the beginning of end, but Leo took a free Genard followed with a score. Kramer looped a free one. Toca scored and Glover ran it up with a free to 7-2. Lamantia then got busy and got two baskets, Kramer scored again. Caridel got a free and Kramer looped another followed by Glover, Laman-tia put in another free and Kramer caged another. Rippel came in for Kingsley and counted two points. Genard then got busy and counted. Caridel counted. Genard scored, Caridel followed and Genard sank another which was duplicated by Toca at the whistle for the half. Score, 23-14 for the Devils.

Glover started things quickly with a score, then Genard got two more in rapid order before the enemy in rapid order before the enemy could get on their feet. Lamantia and Dahmer started a rally, but "Pizen" looped one and Genard ran the score up five more points. The Kingsleys saw the hand writing on the wall long before and knew that nothing could stem the tide. They fought gamely to the last, but well, Rebecca, it was no use, the Devils had come into their own, and it all ended with a final tally of 41 to 27.

Brother Peter had opened the doors to everybody for the two games and many who either did not know basket ball or had little interest in it basket ball or had little interest in it were on hand to witness the lively scrimmage. Second game: Sunday afternoon for a second time, Kingsley and Stanislaus fought it out on the court, but with a sweeter result than in Saturday's game. The game started off at a rapid pace which was kept throughout. What was interesting and furnished the thrills was the fact that we knew what a good team our boys were pit-ted against, and with a few hard luck shots to our credit and a few lucky ones to their credit the score would have been a tie and after that it would have depended a great deal on luck as to which side would loop the in there and were getting all over-Kingsley and for a while they did
